Take a paws...

by Kathy Troccoli

Dear Friend,

I was at my home away from home—the Nashville airport. As I was waiting for my luggage a stunning golden retriever caught my eye. He was laying quietly by his owner.

He wore what looked like a service dog kind of garment. I was well aware of the “no touch” policy, but my adoring gaze prompted a kind response...

“OK. Go ahead. You can pet him.”

I immediately knelt down and before I could offer a tender touch on his fur, he greeted me with two paws and looked me right in the eyes.

It was love at first sight...

I learned “Cooper” comforts people in trauma. He is trained to comfort.

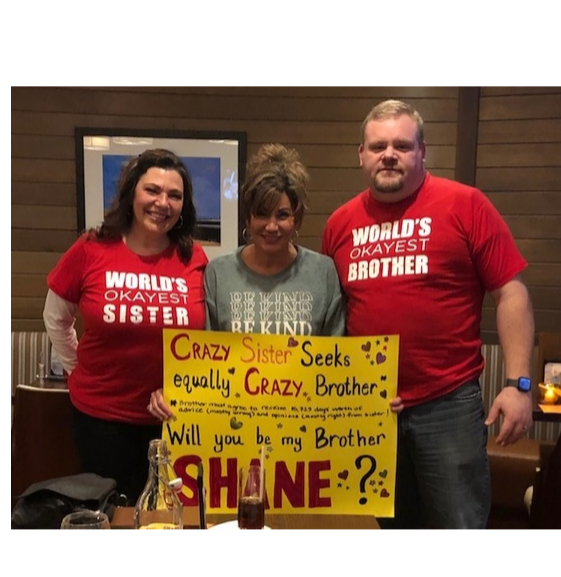

I realized as I left, that I was greeted by this precious animal with such warmth and kindness and with much more focused attention than many human encounters.

He had no other agenda but love.

Fast forward...

to a dinner in a hotel restaurant with my team. I noticed a couple at another table wearing matching, red t-shirts that said something about being brother and sister...

Intrigued, I got up from my table to greet them. What I discovered was, that they were meeting for the first time! They were overjoyed to share their story about finding each other, then graciously thanked me for entering into their celebration.

We could all learn a lot from Cooper:)

Let's continue to light our world....

Try to notice someone with one kind word per day.

You will balloon their soul.

I couldn't be more excited about my two Viking river cruises in July of 2020! I will be going on all the excursions as your host—stopping to sing in a few cathedrals here and there:)

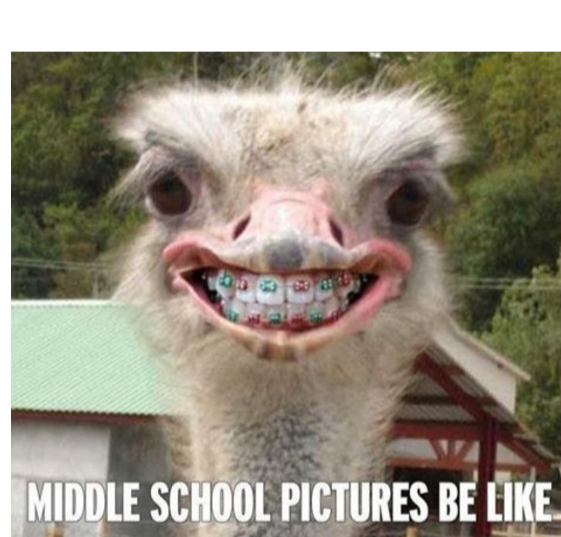

These sailings are filling up and I would love for you to come on this exciting adventure with me...
